TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I, the applicant, note the availability of pre-enrolment information, including at www.ih-sydney.com.au, and have, in making my choice to study with IH Sydney Training Services Pty Ltd (hereinafter called "IH Sydney"), viewed the relevant course outlines and details of the services and facilities of the campus at which I am applying to study and agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions of Enrolment. I also acknowledge that I am responsible for keeping a copy of this agreement, as well as any receipts of payment.

I verify that all the information I have submitted in and/or with and/or in support of this application is accurate, up to date, and complete and that I have and/or will disclose, prior to commencing my course, any medical or other matters that may affect my ability to participate in and/or complete the course I am applying for so that I can be given appropriate support.

I agree that should this application be accepted, I will behave in a safe, responsible, respectful, and appropriate manner at all times, and will not undertake any activity or action that may be deemed dangerous and/or beyond my ability to carry out safely while on IH Sydney premises and/or while participating in excursions, extracurricular activities and/or events organized by IH Sydney, and/or while in accommodation facilities organized by IH Sydney.

I, the applicant, acknowledge that this written agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect my rights to take action under the Australian Consumer Law, if applicable.

I, the applicant, acknowledge that if I am on a Student Visa it is my responsibility to advise IH Sydney of my current residential address, mobile number (if any), and email (if any) as well as contact details of whom to contact in an emergency on arrival. I also understand that if any of these details change, I must notify the college within 7 days of the change. I am aware that failure to do so would be a breach of my visa conditions.

IH Sydney is bound by the legislation of the Australian Government including the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (ESOS Act), the Education Services for Overseas Students Legislation Amendment (Tuition Protection Service and Other Measures) Act 2012. These and other associated legislations can be found at <https://internationaleducation.gov.au>

HEALTH INSURANCE AND OSHC

IH Sydney advises that all students should have appropriate and adequate health, medical, and accident insurance while they are in Australia. All student visa holders are required, as a condition of their visa, to have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) before a Confirmation of Enrolment will be issued, and it must be for the duration of the stay in Australia on that visa. Student visa applicants are required by IH Sydney to provide a document with the student's name and date of coverage as proof of this cover. This must be obtained before arrival in Australia and provide cover from the date of arrival in Australia. IH Sydney can arrange OSHC for student visa applicants only. If IH Sydney arranges a student's OSHC only for the first course or part of a longer programme, it is the student's responsibility to either extend or take out OSHC for the rest of their time in Australia.

CREDIT TRANSFER AND RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

Course Credit and Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is part of a system to allow students to gain recognition for prior learning by providing the appropriate evidence of relevant professional experience and training and of other RTO qualifications and statements of attainment.

Students need to apply for Course Credit in writing, with supporting evidence as required, before their course starts. If the Course Credit is granted before the student visa is granted, the actual course duration (as reduced by Course Credit) will be acknowledged in the confirmation of enrolment issued for that student for that course. If the course credit is granted after the student visa grant, IH Sydney will report the change of course duration via PRISMS as per section 19 of the ESOS Act.

All applicants can apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) for any of the units in the course for which they are applying. Applicants can have their prior learning recognised by IH Sydney if they submit an application for the RPL prior the course starting date. Students can request an RPL kit to prepare for their application. Each application will be assessed within two weeks of being received by the college and a written response accepting or rejecting the application will be issued as soon as practicable. Payment of $500 per unit is required at the time of applying for RPL.

Where a student gains RPL it will lead to the duration of the course being reduced accordingly. Where such a student is on a Student Visa, IH Sydney will calculate the final, shortened course length and issue a Confirmation of Enrolment accordingly. If RPL is granted after visa issue, IH Sydney will inform the appropriate Australian government departments. This may result in changes to the student's visa and the student will need to seek advice on any potential impacts on their visa.

Acceptance onto any course with IH Sydney is subject to successful completion of a selection and/or interview process and IH Sydney, in its absolute discretion, may accept or reject any application to undertake a course.

Once a place has been offered, it can only be secured when the required deposit or the relevant fee(s), as stated in the invoice, has/have been paid. Where any fees payable prior to commencements have not been received 14 days prior to course commencement, that position on the course may be offered to another candidate.

VISA REQUIREMENTS AND OBLIGATIONS

All students must hold a valid visa to study at IH Sydney and must comply with the requirements of that visa. IH Sydney is required to monitor and report on the attendance and course progress of all students on a student visa. A student visa holder's failure to meet the requirements of their visa, including but not limited to regarding minimum attendance (minimum 80% of 20 hours per week face to face tuition) and course progress requirements, may result in the student being reported to the relevant Australian government departments, including immigration, which may result in the cancellation of his or her student visa. For further details of this requirement please see the IH Sydney policies and procedures relating to course attendance and course progress.

CANCELLATIONS, DEFERRALS, SUSPENSIONS AND REFUNDS

If a student wishes to delay the start date of their course, they must apply, in writing, for the deferral at least two weeks before the previously agreed course start date. Students should check the course calendar and contact IH Sydney admissions to ensure that the delay is possible.

Where a delayed start date is possible, student visa holders must note that this will require an adjustment to their CoE and that this may impact on their visa. In such cases, the student is responsible for seeking advice from an Australian government immigration official.

If a student visa holder does not commence studies on the agreed commencement date, IH Sydney may need to cancel the student's CoE and report the cancellation to the DHA, and this may result in the cancellation of the student's visa.

The following may affect a student's grade and may be grounds for dismissal from the course:

- failure to co-operate reasonably with other trainees, students, IH Sydney personnel and third parties such as, but not limited to, work experience providers
- non-compliance with the IH Sydney code of conduct. This includes, but is not limited to, activities or behavior's that endanger others, are in any way illegal, negatively impact the wellbeing of others or might reasonable be distressing for others, including various forms of discrimination or bullying.
- failure to meet minimum attendance and/or course progress requirements as per the IH Sydney policies and visa conditions.

Where a student wishes to defer, suspend, or cancel their course prior to commencement, they must apply in writing. A Cancellation Fee of $250 applies.

Except in cases of visa application rejection, dealt with further below, the amounts to be refunded are to be, where the student submits written notice of cancellation:

- more than 28 working days before the original course start date*, a refund of tuition fees less any enrolment fees, additional fees, course deposit and accommodation booking fees. A $300 Admin Fee applies to all refunds.
- 28 working days or less but greater than 14 working days before the course start date*, a refund of 80% of tuition fees less any enrolment fees, additional fees, course deposit and accommodation booking fees. A $300 Admin Fee applies to all refunds.
- 14 working days or less before the original course start date*, no refund. There is no refund of tuition or any fees for cancellation fewer than 14 working days before the course start* date.

*Note that where a student defers their course start date and later cancels the enrolment, the course start date will be taken to be the original start date agreed to in the student's signed Letter of Offer & Written Agreement.

Where a student's visa application is rejected, IH Sydney will refund tuition and non-tuition fees paid within 28 days of the student producing acceptable evidence that the application made for a student visa was rejected by a visa-issuing authority. The amount of the refund will be equal to the fees paid by or on behalf of the student, minus the lesser of the following amounts:

- 5% of the amount of fees received (pre-paid tuition fees, non-tuition fees) or
- $500

CELTA deposits are non-refundable. Deferrals may be considered under special circumstances, a fee of $250 applies.

No refund will be provided in any circumstances where it is demonstrated that the student has supplied fraudulent, forged or deliberately misleading documents.

All refunds will be sent to the account from which the fees were originally paid or to the party nominated in writing by the student at the time of application for the refund. No refunds will be transferred to other current or future students or to bank accounts not adequately identified.

In the unlikely event that IH Sydney is unable to deliver a course in full, the student will be offered a choice of enrolment in an alternative course at no extra cost or a refund of any as-yet-unused, pre-paid fees. If for any reason no alternative course or refund is possible the Tuition Protection Service (TPS), an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study, will provide the student with access to their preferred option of:

- completing their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receiving a refund of their unspent tuition fees.

In the case that a student wishes to transfer from a current enrolment with another provider to a course at IH Sydney, they will need to be released on PRISMS from the original provider except where that provider has ceased to be registered or has been suspended. If a student is enrolled at IH Sydney and wishes to transfer to another provider prior to completing 6 months of their principal course they must provide a valid letter of offer from another provider and be released on PRISMS.

COMPELLING AND COMPASSIONATE CIRCUMSTANCES

Compelling and compassionate circumstances include, but are not necessarily limited to, death of close family such as parents, siblings, children and grandparents, serious illness and life-threatening conditions, or involvement into a traumatic event such as experiencing or witnessing a crime. In such cases IH Sydney may, at its sole discretion, choose to vary any of the above conditions to provide more appropriate support for the student.

Should a student need to apply for consideration of compelling and compassionate circumstances, they can do so initially in person, but this must be supported by valid documentation and the relevant request form.

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

Where a student is not satisfied with the nature of any service provided by IH Sydney (a complaint), or a decision made by IH Sydney or one of its staff (an appeal), the student should address their concerns with a relevant staff member as soon as it is practical. Should the matter not be resolved to their satisfaction, the student can make a complaint to the Director of Studies or Student Services Manager. If the matter is still not resolved to the student's satisfaction, the student will be provided with the means to escalate the complaint in writing to the General Manager or Executive Director.

The student is welcome to bring a person of their choice to support them at any meeting or discussion of the complaint or appeal.

Should the matter still not be resolved to the student's satisfaction, he or she may lodge an external appeal or complaint through the Overseas Students Ombudsman. See the Overseas Students Ombudsman website www.oso.gov.au or phone 1300 362 072 for more information. Further details regarding complaints and appeals policies and procedures can be accessed via the related policy and procedure documents located on the IH Sydney website.
